4CD / Blu-ray video clamshell box set by the legendary Jack Bruce. 'Halfway To The Stars' gathers all the recordings made by Jack and his band The Cuicoland Express between 2001 and 2003. Includes the albums 'Shadows In The Air', 'More Jack Than God' and the double album 'Live at The Milky Way', recorded at The Melkweg in Amsterdam in October 2001, along with the concert video 'Live at The Canterbury Fayre', recorded in 2002. 'Shadows In The Air' was Jack's acclaimed 12th studio album and saw him reunited with Eric Clapton on re-recordings of two Cream classics, 'Sunshine Of Your Love' and 'White Room', along with other notable guests including Dr. John and Gary Moore. 'More Jack Than God' was his next studio album and featured new material alongside new interpretations of Cream's 'I Feel Free', 'We're Going Wrong' and 'Politician'. The live recordings featured in this set reveal the magic of Jack Bruce & The Cuicoland Express on the concert stage during this era. 'Halfway To The Stars - The Recordings 2001 - 2003' features newly remastered versions of all of these wonderful recordings, making them available once more for the first time in many years. It is a fine tribute to a uniquely gifted artist.
